WELCOME TO THE EDIT

Ibiza — Where Every Hour Has a Dress Code

Ibiza is a masterclass in dressing for the moment. Morning beach clubs require barely-there glamour. Dalt Vila's medieval lanes call for linen and espadrilles. And the legendary sunset strip — Café del Mar, Kumharas — demands something golden, something floaty, something that catches the last light perfectly.

This is the one destination where more is sometimes more. One showstopper outfit is mandatory. The rest should be effortlessly beautiful.

“

Ibiza doesn't do ordinary. Neither should your wardrobe.

BEAUTY & TOILETRIES

What to Bring

Ibiza heat is relentless. Lightweight, sweat-proof formulas only.
Spanish farmacias stock excellent SPF and after-sun — buy on arrival.

HER BEAUTY BAG

SPF 50 face (waterproof)
Bronzing drops or stick
Waterproof mascara
Gold or coral lip gloss
Glitter or highlighter
Travel perfume (musky/warm)
Hair oil (humidity control)
After-sun body lotion

HIS GROOMING KIT

SPF 50 face moisturiser
Bronzer (optional, very Ibiza)
Cologne (heavy and warm)
Beard balm or oil
Lip balm SPF
Deodorant (extra strength)
Hair styling paste
After-sun gel

ESSENTIALS & SMART TRAVEL

TECH & PRACTICALITIES

EU Type F adapter (Spain)
Portable phone charger
Reusable bottle (high heat)
Beach towel (hotels often charge)

THE EXTRAS THAT MATTER

Euros in cash (small bars)
Ear plugs (for sleeping late)
Travel insurance docs
Reef-safe sunscreen

WHAT NOT TO PACK — EVER

Heavy denim — even at night, linen or lightweight fabrics are better
Conservative or modest dress — Ibiza celebrates the body
Unnecessary layers — one light layer for late nights is all you need
Sports shoes — unless for actual sport, sneakers look out of place at sunset
Cheap jewellery — it tarnishes in the salt air and humidity

PACKING STRATEGY & CHECKLIST

The Ibiza Packing Mindset

Book a finca or boutique hotel rather than a chain — atmosphere matters here.
 Request a room with a terrace. Ibiza sunsets from your own space are priceless.
 Pack your showstopper outfit first. Everything else serves that one moment.
 Leave a full evening free with no plans — the best Ibiza nights happen spontaneously.

The sun sets gold every night. You only need to show up.
