WELCOME TO THE EDIT

Marrakech — The Art of Dressing for Another World

Marrakech demands both cultural sensitivity and aesthetic ambition. The medina rewards those who cover up respectfully — and it rewards them beautifully, with rooftops, riads, and souks that form the world's most dramatic backdrop.

The luxury traveler in Marrakech dresses for two contexts: the public medina, where modesty is a mark of respect, and the private riad or resort pool, where anything goes. Pack for both. Wear them with intention.

BEST TIME TO VISIT

March–May and September–November are ideal — warm, not scorching, and culturally vibrant. Summer is very hot (40°C+). December–February is cool but beautiful for riads and souks.

CLOTHING — WHAT TO PACK

DAYWEAR

Linen maxi dress (arms covered) × 2
Wide-leg linen trousers × 2
Lightweight linen shirt (long) × 2
Kaftan or embroidered tunic × 2
Swimsuit (riad pool) × 1

EVENING & LAYERS

Silk slip or spaghetti dress (riad) × 1
Linen co-ord (modest) × 1
Lightweight cardigan/blazer × 1
Shawl or wrap (mosque visits) × 1
Bikini (riad pool only) × 1

SHOES

Babouche (flat leather slipper) — the authentic Marrakech shoe, buy in the souks
Leather sandal (closed or strappy) — medina walking
Slide or flat mule — riad and resort
Espadrille — day walks and gardens

ACCESSORIES

HEADWEAR & JEWELLERY

Silk or embroidered headscarf (mosque visits)
Statement earrings (Berber-inspired gold)
Stacked bangles or cuffs

BAGS & EYEWEAR

Woven or leather souk bag (buy in market)
Small leather clutch (evening)
Quality sunglasses (UV50+)

HER MARRAKECH STYLE PRINCIPLE

The palette: terracotta, saffron, deep indigo, ivory, Majorelle blue.
Covered shoulders and knees in the medina — this is non-negotiable and deeply respectful.
At the riad, the rules reverse entirely. Wear the kaftan by the pool. Wear the kaftan everywhere.

OUTFIT INSPIRATION

MEDINA & SOUKS

Linen maxi dress,
babouche, scarf

GARDEN VISIT

Wide-leg linen + shirt,
leather sandal

RIAD EVENING

Embroidered kaftan,
jewelled flat

His Edit — Marrakech Wardrobe

Relaxed, covered, and culturally considered

RIAD EVE

Moroccan shirt,
 trousers, loafer

BEAUTY &amp; TOILETRIES

What to Bring

Marrakech is dry and intensely sunny. Hydration is your beauty priority. Pharmacies in Gueliz (new city) stock good products. Buy argan oil in the souks — it's authentic and exceptional.

HER BEAUTY BAG

SPF 50 face (fragrance-free)
 Argan oil (buy in souk)
 Tinted moisturiser
 Waterproof mascara
 Dusty rose or terracotta lip
 Oud or floral perfume
 Hair oil (dry heat protection)
 Rich body moisturiser

HIS GROOMING KIT

SPF 50 face moisturiser
 Oud or woody cologne
 Beard oil (argan-based, buy local)
 Lip balm SPF
 Deodorant (extra strength)
 Hair cream or paste
 Face wipes
 Rich hand cream (dry air)

ESSENTIALS & SMART TRAVEL

TECH & PRACTICALITIES

EU Type C/E adapter
 Portable phone charger
 Reusable water bottle
 Small lock for riad room

THE EXTRAS THAT MATTER

Dirhams in cash (essential everywhere)
 Offline maps downloaded
 Travel insurance docs
 Stomach tablets (food adjustment)

WHAT NOT TO PACK — EVER

Shorts or sleeveless tops for the medina — this is cultural disrespect, not fashion
 Revealing clothing in public spaces outside the riad — read and respect local norms
 Expensive or flashy jewellery in the souks — it invites unwanted attention
 Open-toe shoes in the medina — the ground can be rough and souk debris is everywhere
 Anything you can't afford to lose — the souks are chaotic and magical in equal measure

PACKING STRATEGY &amp; CHECKLIST

Arriving in Marrakech

Book a riad in the medina — these courtyard hotels are the Marrakech experience.
 Hire a local guide for your first morning in the souks — the medina is labyrinthine.
 Negotiate respectfully in the souks — it's expected, it's cultural, and it's part of the joy.
 Try the hammam at least once. Most riads offer private hammam experiences.

The souks are endless. The mint tea is perfect. The light is extraordinary.
