WELCOME TO THE EDIT

Paris — The City That Judges Wardrobes

No city on earth has a more defined aesthetic. Parisian style is not fashion — it is the studied art of appearing as though you made no effort at all. The trick: exceptional basics, one interesting piece, and absolute confidence.

Whether you're wandering Le Marais on a Tuesday or dining at a brasserie in Saint-Germain on a Saturday night — the goal is always the same. Look like you belong. Because with the right wardrobe, you do.

“

Paris doesn't care what you paid. It cares how you wear it.

BEST TIME TO VISIT

Spring (April–June) and autumn (Sept–Oct) are the golden seasons for Paris. Summer is warm and lively. Winter is cold but deeply romantic — pack accordingly.

SPRING

Blossom, light layers, perfect

SUMMER

Warm, vibrant, terrasse season

AUTUMN

Golden, crisp, most chic

Her Edit — Paris Wardrobe

Effortless, considered, unmistakably Parisian

CLOTHING — WHAT TO PACK

DAYWEAR

Classic trench coat × 1
Straight-leg dark jeans × 1
Striped Breton top × 1
Silk blouse (ivory or ecru) × 2
Tailored blazer (black or camel) × 1

EVENING & LAYERS

Midi skirt (pleated or satin) × 1
Simple black dress × 1
Fine knit turtleneck × 1
Tailored trousers (wide-leg) × 1
Quality T-shirt (white) × 2

SHOES

Ballet flat (leather) — the quintessential Parisian shoe for all occasions
Ankle boot (leather) — autumn/winter/spring essential
White sneaker (Veja or similar) — market days and museum walks
Block-heel mule or loafer — evening dinners and gallery openings

ACCESSORIES

HEADWEAR & JEWELLERY

Silk scarf (Hermès or equivalent)
Simple gold or silver jewellery
Beret (worn at an angle, naturally)

BAGS & EYEWEAR

Leather shoulder bag or structured tote
Small leather clutch (evenings)
Quality sunglasses (understated frames)

HER PARIS STYLE PRINCIPLE

The palette: navy, ecru, camel, black, dusty rose. Add one unexpected colour.
The formula: one fitted piece + one loose piece + one beautiful accessory.
Never match your bag to your shoes. That is how tourists dress.

OUTFIT INSPIRATION

BEAUTY & TOILETRIES

What to Bring

Parisian beauty is skin-first, minimalist, and deeply intentional.
French pharmacies (Pharmacie de Paris) are world-class — visit one on arrival.

HER BEAUTY BAG

SPF 30 daily moisturiser
Tinted moisturiser (light coverage)
Mascara (brown or black)
NARS Blush or cream blush
Nude or red lip only
Understated perfume
Light hair oil or serum
Micellar water (Bioderma)

HIS GROOMING KIT

SPF moisturiser (daily)
Understated cologne
Beard oil or balm
Clear brow gel
Lip balm
Light face wash
Hair cream or serum
Nail file (hands matter in Paris)

ESSENTIALS & SMART TRAVEL

TECH & PRACTICALITIES

EU Type E adapter
Portable charger
Metro book of tickets (carnet)
Compact umbrella

THE EXTRAS THAT MATTER

Euros in cash
Museum pass (worth it)
Travel insurance docs
Small lock for bag

WHAT NOT TO PACK — EVER

Logo-heavy or obviously branded clothing — Parisians wear logos ironically, if at all
Trainers with formal outfits — the contrast that works in London doesn't work here
Over-accessorising — one statement piece, never three
Bright or neon colours — the Paris palette is resolutely muted and considered
Shorts (unless at the park on a hot day) — Parisians rarely wear them in the city

PACKING STRATEGY & CHECKLIST

Arriving in Paris

Stay in the 1st, 3rd, 4th, or 6th arrondissement — proximity to beauty matters.
 Walk everywhere you can. Paris is best discovered on foot with no agenda.
 Book your restaurant reservations before you arrive — the best tables fill weeks ahead.
 Leave one afternoon completely unplanned. Paris reveals itself to those who wander.

Paris is always a good idea. The right outfit makes it a great one.
