

THE EDIT ABROAD

South of France

The Luxury Packing Guide

CÔTE D'AZUR · SAINT-TROPEZ · MONACO · PROVENCE

Created for travelers who move through the world with intention.

WELCOME TO THE EDIT

The South of France Awaits

The South of France is one of the most stylish destinations on earth. From the yacht-lined harbours of Saint-Tropez to the lavender fields of Provence and the grand boulevards of Nice, every moment calls for a considered wardrobe.

This guide was built on real experience — designed for travelers who want to arrive looking effortless, travel light without sacrifice, and move seamlessly from a morning market to a Michelin-starred dinner without changing bags.

Pack less. Wear more. Arrive as the best version of yourself.

WHAT NOT TO PACK — EVER

Heavy denim — too hot, too casual for the Riviera aesthetic
More than one pair of heels — cobblestones are unforgiving
Athleisure outside the hotel — this is France
More than one formal evening look — one is more than enough
Full-size toiletry bottles — French pharmacies are exceptional
A bag you wouldn't want photographed — you will be photographed
Gym wear in public spaces — opt for linen even on relaxed days

THE HOTEL PACKING STRATEGY

Arrive Like You Live There

Use luggage storage on arrival and do not unpack until your room is ready.
 Request the wardrobe unpacking service — most Riviera 5-star properties offer it.
 Hang everything that can wrinkle immediately. Request a steamer in-room.
 Keep one drawer for swimwear only — protect delicate fabrics from sunscreen.
 Leave 25% of your case empty on arrival. You will shop — and you should.

Leave space. The Riviera will fill it beautifully.
