WELCOME TO THE EDIT

Southern Italy — The Most Beautiful Coastline on Earth

Southern Italy is not one destination — it is four entirely different worlds. The vertiginous glamour of the Amalfi Coast and Positano. The baroque gold of Sicily's hilltop towns and volcanic coastlines. The whitewashed trulli and turquoise sea of Puglia. And Capri, suspended between heaven and the Tyrrhenian, where style is both religion and daily practice.

What unites them: terracotta, lemon groves, ancient stone, and a people who dress with quiet, enduring elegance. Match that energy. Always.

“

Italy never goes out of style. Neither should you while you're here.

HER SOUTHERN ITALY STYLE PRINCIPLE

The palette: terracotta, lemon yellow, ivory, faded olive, Tyrrhenian blue.
Linen is the fabric of the south. Cotton is second. Synthetics will be punished by the heat.
One rule across all four regions: cover shoulders and knees entering any church.
The Positano silhouette: floaty dress + flat leather sandal + gold earrings. Perfect. Always.

BEAUTY & TOILETRIES

What to Bring

Southern Italian sun is relentless from May through October.
Italian pharmacies stock exceptional SPF and skincare — arrive and immediately buy more.

HER BEAUTY BAG

SPF 50 face (waterproof for coast and lido)
Tinted SPF or bronzing drops
Waterproof mascara (heat is serious)
Coral, peach, or terracotta lip
Gold or peachy highlighter
Warm floral or citrus perfume
Hair oil or salt spray (humidity)
After-sun aloe lotion

HIS GROOMING KIT

SPF 50 face moisturiser
Cologne (Mediterranean citrus ideal)
Beard oil or balm
Lip balm with SPF
Deodorant (extra strength for heat)
Hair paste (humidity-proof formula)
After-sun gel
Face wipes (for heat days)

ESSENTIALS & SMART TRAVEL

TECH & PRACTICALITIES

EU Type F/L adapter (Italy uses both)
Portable phone charger
Reusable water bottle (fill at fontanelle)
Compact tote (markets and ceramics shopping)

THE EXTRAS THAT MATTER

Euros in cash (smaller towns are cash-only)
Church cover-up in bag at all times
Travel insurance docs
Offline maps (cliff-top signal can be poor)

WHAT NOT TO PACK — EVER

Shorts or sleeveless tops for churches — a pashmina in your bag solves this problem always
Stilettoes on the Amalfi Coast steps — beauty and practicality are at war here; practicality wins
Excessive luggage — Positano and Amalfi town are reached by steps, boats, and steep lanes
Synthetic fabrics — 35°C heat combined with humidity makes this an emergency
Anything precious that can't survive a lemon granita incident — it will happen
Only neutral tones — the south celebrates colour: wear the terracotta, the cobalt, the yellow

PACKING STRATEGY & CHECKLIST

The Southern Italy Approach

Base yourself in Positano or Praiano for the Amalfi Coast — avoid driving the SS163 daily. Sicily deserves a full week minimum: Palermo, Taormina, the Aeolian Islands, and Agrigento. Puglia is underrated and unhurried — Lecce, Alberobello, Ostuni, and Polignano a Mare. Capri is a day trip from Positano or Naples — arrive early, leave before the crowds peak. Book ferries and hydrofoils in advance in peak season — they sell out days ahead.

“

La dolce vita isn't a saying in the south. It's a daily fact.
