WELCOME TO THE EDIT

Tokyo — Where Fashion Is a Cultural Practice

No city in the world takes personal style more seriously than Tokyo. In a city where the street is a runway and every neighbourhood has its own distinct aesthetic — from Ginza's pristine luxury to Shimokitazawa's curated vintage — dressing thoughtfully is a mark of cultural respect.

Spring (March–May) brings cherry blossoms and perfect temperatures. Autumn (October–November) is crisp and visually extraordinary. Summer is hot and humid — pack natural fabrics and embrace the layered approach that Tokyo's indoor-outdoor culture demands.

In Tokyo, getting dressed is a form of respect. Show up considered.

 Long cardigan or kimono-inspired layer × 1

SHOES

Clean white leather sneaker — Tokyo's daytime standard for the stylish traveler
 Leather loafer or pointed flat — shopping, galleries, and upscale cafes
 Ankle boot (autumn/winter) — adds structure and is very Tokyo
 Strappy flat or heeled sandal — Ginza dinner and hotel bar

ACCESSORIES

HEADWEAR & JEWELLERY

Quality structured bag (tote or shoulder)
 Minimal jewellery — one interesting ring, simple earrings
 Silk scarf or neck tie (very Tokyo)

BAGS & EYEWEAR

Small leather crossbody (evenings and transit)
 Interesting sunglasses (Tokyo rewards bold frames)
 Compact umbrella (essential in spring and summer)

HER TOKYO STYLE PRINCIPLE

The palette: black, white, blush, indigo, and one unexpected pop of colour or print.
 Proportion and silhouette matter more in Tokyo than anywhere else. Fit is everything.
 Tokyo is extremely walkable — comfort and style are not negotiable. Both must be achieved.

BEAUTY & TOILETRIES

What to Bring

Japanese beauty standards are exceptional — and the products to match are everywhere. Visit a Matsumoto Kiyoshi or @cosme store on day one — you will not regret it.

HER BEAUTY BAG

SPF 50 (Japanese UV protection is world-class — buy locally)

Cushion foundation or tinted SPF

Waterproof mascara

Subtle blush (Japanese beauty is skin-first)

Tinted lip balm or NARS gloss

Light floral or clean perfume

Hair serum (humidity in summer)

Sheet masks (buy in Tokyo — extraordinary value)

HIS GROOMING KIT

SPF 50 face moisturiser

Cologne (understated — strong scent is culturally inappropriate on transit)

Beard balm or oil

Tinted moisturiser (optional)

Lip balm

Quality hair product (Tokyo standards are high)

Face wash

Sheet mask (try it — Japanese skincare is worth experiencing)

ESSENTIALS & SMART TRAVEL

TECH & PRACTICALITIES

Japan Type A adapter (US-style, but Japan uses 100V — check devices)

Portable IC Suica card (transit card — buy at any station)

Compact umbrella (absolute essential)

Cash yen — Japan is still predominantly cash

THE EXTRAS THAT MATTER

Yen in cash (many places don't take cards)

Pocket WiFi or SIM card

Travel insurance docs

Lightweight tote (every shop gives beautiful bags — you'll accumulate)

WHAT NOT TO PACK — EVER

Shoes that are difficult to remove — temples, restaurants with tatami, and many traditional spaces require shoe removal

Heavily perfumed products — strong scent is considered impolite on Tokyo public transit

Torn or distressed denim — this reads as careless in a city that prizes intentional dressing

Multiple large bags — Tokyo's transit system requires compact, manageable luggage

Loud or logo-heavy streetwear (unless that's your genuine aesthetic) — Tokyo respects restraint

PACKING STRATEGY & CHECKLIST

Arriving in Tokyo

Stay in Shinjuku, Shibuya, or Ginza — all are well-connected to everywhere.

Get a Suica IC card at the airport — it works on every train, subway, and many convenience stores.

Book your best restaurant (Narisawa, Den, Florilège) months in advance — not weeks.

Visit a convenience store (7-Eleven, Lawson) for breakfast — Japanese konbini food is genuinely excellent.

Tokyo will be the most organised, beautiful, and overwhelming city you've ever loved.
